Chapter 1 by Ashley Hagan

Stella:

My name is Stella. I live on Mars in the year 2300. We have lots of hydroponic plants on Mars. Our houses are located under the clear dome that regulates everything to Earth-like temperature. Over the years, though, some of our civilisation evolved to meet the needs of harsh life here. They're called the Martians, the Impure, and they're shunned by the Earthans, the Pure. I have a crush on Adam, and he's a very rich, very rule-abiding Earthan. He's the Prince. There's only one problem: I'm a very poor, very rule-breaking Martian.

Some Martians have developed claws and large ears. Some even have scales, a tail and a forked tongue. I happen to have claws, scales on my hands and arms like fingerless gloves, scales on my feet and legs like socks, and a forked tongue. I also have a tail for balance. My complexion leans towards a Mars surface orange-red for camouflage.

Adam:

My name is Adam. I love being an Earthan, and I value my position very dearly. It's not every day that your parents rule Mars. They've trained me into the future King. All I need now is someone to eventually be my Queen. According to my parents, it can't be a Martian, but that's nowhere in
